Compliance with the Dress Code

- All students are expected to meet dress requirements in this policy unless an exemption has been granted.
- Parents are responsible for ensuring that their children's presentation meets the Dress Code.
- Staff model appropriate presentation. Staff also make sure that students and parents are aware of the Dress Code expectations and affirm students who are meeting the Dress Code

Non- compliance with the Dress Code

We will ensure that procedural fairness and, cultural and personal sensitivity, are considered when dealing with issues of non-compliance with our Dress Code. Our approach will be supportive not punitive esp

In line with our Positive Behaviour Support Program, staff will prompt, re-direct and re-teach dress expectations and reward students meeting the code. If non-compliance continues teachers may contact parents to help and support them to ensure their children meet the Dress Code. Staff are encouraged to seek advice/support from the Executive Team about student non-compliance.

The Principal can prevent a student who is not conforming to our Dress Code from attending any activity in which the student would have been representing the school. The Principal can also prevent the student from attending, or participating, in any school activity which, in the opinion of the Principal, is not an essential part of the student's educational program.

Exemptions to the Dress Code

Any request for a student to be exempt from meeting the Dress Code must be made, in writing, to the principal.

The Principal may grant exemptions based on unavailability of an item, a health issue, cultural or religious beliefs of the student or their family or any other issue the principal deems sufficient. Exemptions are managed according to the principles of equity, fairness and consistency. They may be formal or informal and cover short or long term periods.

Clothing suppliers

The Denmark Co-op on Strickland St is the exclusive supplier of our school uniform with the school logo.

Students are reminded that whilst in uniform they should demonstrate our whole school expectations.
